

Back with a Vengeance!

With bigger fish to fry, such as preparing for tendering in Criminal and Civil and preparing new contracts and quality standards, you may have thought the Legal Services Commission have taken their eyes off the ball when it comes to auditing.

NOT SO! : THEY'RE BACK!

Not only are they back, but they have a 'new' audit approach...

A NEW STYLE OF AUDIT

This new style audit, based on "financial stewardship" is an extremely demanding and robust approach that will test the best firms' processes, systems and people in a way that will make the old style audit be recalled with almost fond memories...

It can lead to:

- Further more extensive and intrusive on site audits
- A new style Contract Compliance Audit
- Recoupment of Money for fees claimed
- Contract notices

The New LSC audits – Can your firm survive?

An ESSENTIAL course for Civil and Family fee earners, supervisors and partners of legal aid practices. It will provide practical examples of how to avoid the common pitfalls and will include the following:

- Legal Help and Nil Assessment of claims
- Level 1 and Level 2
- The 2 hour rule – where are we now?
- Payments on Account and Work in Progress Checks
- Appealing CCA results
- The New SQM
- Case Splitting and Duplicate Claims

Getting it wrong could cost you a lot of money in recoupment and potentially loss of your contract.

It could adversely affect you in future tenders.

Demand for this course will be high....

So BOOK TODAY and ensure your practice is prepared for the New Style Audit.

CPD HOURS = 3

COURSE FEE = £225.00 + VAT
